The Rooney Punyi Reading Show READERS ARE DOERS!

Thank-you for inquiring about this exciting literacy show!

Here are the key things you need to know.

- 50 min. shows for K-6.
- max. audience 150 students. (With so much audience participation, larger numbers can affect the quality of the performance)
- School must provide two microphones.
- Parents will love the show too, so invite them.
- The show begins quietly with a story.
- Then the teachers help with a high energy and very silly sing-a-long.
- Then a hilarious reader's theatre, twisted fairy tale is performed.
- For the finale the audience helps act out a storybook. These hilarious audience participation plays vary from year to year. "Peter Pan." "Jack and the Beanstalk." "Sleeping Beauty." "Wizard of Oz." "Beauty and the Beast." "Red Riding Hood." "Pinocchio".

The grown-ups will laugh along with the children and it is our hope that the students will want to grab a book once they get the message that readers have fun, and that READERS ARE DOERS!
